Duty of Disclosure

The insurance agreement is governed by the law of the Netherlands.

You have a legal obligation to answer completely and truthfully all questions that we ask you prior to conclusion of the agreement. If it transpires that you have failed to fulfil or to fulfil completely your duty of disclosure, this may limit or even invalidate the entitlement to an insurance benefit. We have the right to cancel the insurance if you deliberately tried to mislead us or if we would not have approved the insurance had we known the true circumstances.

An unborn foal can be insured from 90 days after the last service date up to seven days after the birth. The insured value is established on the basis of the stud fee, which you can increase up to 2.5 times subject to a maximum of € 4.500,-. The premium is 9.5% of the insured value. In the event of damage, 100% is reimbursed.

For the General and Special Terms and Conditions, please visit our website HippoHorseInsurance.com

If, at the time the insurance takes effect, no recent statement has been issued by a veterinarian attesting to the mare being in foal, and based on a recent scan or recent tactile examination of the mare, Hippo Horse Insurance will not make any compensation payment if the mare proves not to be carrying. A fetus insurance taken out for older mares (aged 20 and over), death of the fetus other than due to the foal being dropped/lost is excluded from the cover.
